

He Destroyed the Devil and His Power

031004-4

Hello! This is Dorothy -

I want to rejoice in the fact that because Christ Jesus died for me, the enemy of God, Satan, has no power upon my life! I do not know what your background is, but I used to live next door to a witch. I used to know what it was to feel dreadful, demonic, oppressive spirits. I want to share that I have been in places where I have seen the bondage on lives that are haunted because of what is being said to them by the enemy. I am going to talk about the victory that is in Christ Jesus. Jesus died and there are many reasons we can see in Scripture what was involved in His death. We can see wonderful aspects of when He died, what was shared, and what was taken for you and for me. But I think one of the most amazing verses is that He came and He destroyed the devil's power over you and me.

In Hebrews, chapter 2, we read -

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also. . . - speaking of Jesus - . . . himself likewise took part of the same . . . - in other words, He had flesh and Blood - . . . that through death he. . . -Jesus - . . . might destroy him. . . -that is Satan - . . . that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

I rejoice to know that Jesus took care of death and took the very keys of death from Satan for you, for me. I am speaking to people, who probably at this very moment are scared stiff. They are not necessarily frightened of a person they might meet or some violent person who lives next door, but they are very aware of a fear that is on them which they don't even have a way of explaining to other people. It is coming from demonic hordes under the control of the god of this world (spelled with a small g), Satan. They are bound and they are held and they are frightened. They perhaps have had ancestors passing traditions on to them and they are captive.

Oh, dear, dear, dear friend, I have glorious news! It is Jesus who died on the Cross and He claimed that He had the right to destroy the power of death; the power of fear of death; the power of fear that grips and binds and destroys lives. I want to encourage you right now to look to the Lord Jesus and say, Thank You, Jesus, for dying in my place setting me free from this curse of bondage that has gone on so long; setting me free from even dying, that fear that comes on me at times. Setting you free! Because Jesus is the Only One, who is the way, the truth and the life. He opens up liberty instead of darkness as light and glory. It is all in Christ Jesus.

It says in Romans 5:8 -

8 But God commended his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

1 John 4 :10 —

10 Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation. . . - the mercy seat - . . . for our sins.

And the verse that will bring you much comfort — John 3 —

16 God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever - that includes you - believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

Yes, He loved us; He manifested His love toward us. He came and, on the Cross, He destroyed the power of Satan, the power of death, the power of fear, the power of that bondage in your life. I don't not know about it, but all I do know is I have felt led of the Spirit to link the verses of His love, because He loves you so much. He does not want you to have to be in that position. He wants to be your Liberator.

Would you say, Lord,.liberate me? You died on the Cross; You took care of setting me free! Right now, come into my heart and life. By Your Spirit, may that victory be known within me. I give no place for the enemy; I renounce allegiance to the enemy, and by the Blood of Jesus, I am free! Free in Christ., my Lord and Saviour. I worship and accept You now for Your glory for eternity.

In Jesus' Name. Amen.
